

As NJ residents, we are a two income household, just to meet our bills. The annoying phone calls from telesolicitors that we received at dinner time every night were obnoxious. We felt our privacy invaded daily. I beg of you not to take away that privacy that the do not call list has made available to us.